FOLLOWERS OF CHRIST ARE TO LIVE IN VIGILANT AND PRAYERFUL PREPARATION FOR HIS RETURN IN GLORY

Christ calls us to live boldly for him: to take risks for our faith. We are not to bury our faith within our own hearts, but use it to build up the Kingdom of God on earth. We are to share it with others so that it can grow, not only in us, but all around us. Today, let us look for ways to take some risks for the building up of God's Kingdom.

Our first reading describes the woman who stands in God's favor as industrious and praiseworthy, spending her days in service to God and humankind. Paul reminds all Christians to be vigilant and persevering as we will wait for the return of Christ. The Gospel tells us that we will each give an account to the Lord of how we used our God-given gifts.

DISTRIBUTION OF MISSALETTES

The daily Mass Missalettes (book that we use to follow readings and songs) will be available for distribution at both the Churches. A family can pick up one from the designated spots to use it personally. It will be your personal copy. So, kindly don't leave them in the pews. You can find the books at:

St. Mary's - At the parking lot entry way
St. Francis Xavier's - At the back pew.

†BAPTIZED IN CHRIST This weekend at SFX is Watson Charles, son of Charles and Stephanie Lisius. Through water of baptism, he receives the gift of eternal life and becomes a child of God. May they always feel the depth of God's love for them. Congratulations !

Quote:

We can only share what we have received; we can hold on to our faith only if it continues to grow.

A PRAYER FOR NATIONAL HEALING

We ask, Lord, that you heal us, as a people, that we may join hands and work together for the good of all. Grant us the wisdom and faith to see that only in you are true love and joy ever found. Where we have wandered from your will, put us back on the path you would have us follow. Where we have bitterness and hate, give us love and consideration for others and from the ashes of hate and destruction, may we rise up as a nation committed to your teachings and your will and a light to the world. This we ask in the name of your Son Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.
